Moove In Self Storage Expands Portfolio into Connecticut

York, PA – March 14, 2019

Local self storage company Moove In Self Storage has expanded their portfolio into the Connecticut market. They have acquired Wolcott Mini Storage, located on Wolcott Road (Route 69) in the town of Wolcott, which is in New Haven County.

Wolcott Mini Storage includes two properties and added more than 350 storage units and an additional 48,673 SF of storage to the portfolio, which now stands at 26 locations throughout PA, MD, NJ, NY and CT, and is managed by Investment Real Estate Management, LLC. The two properties are located just three miles apart on Wolcott Road and are run out of the rental office at 1140 Wolcott Road.

When asked about the acquisition, Suzi Conner, Area Manager for Moove In Self Storage says, "It's exciting to see Moove In expand into Connecticut, an entirely new market for us. These properties fit very well into our portfolio and into our Northeast territory. We have property improvements planned such as new electronic keypad operated gates and new signage at both locations. We're glad to become part of the Wolcott community."

Wolcott Mini Storage was built in 1998 and consists of nine total buildings with traditional drive-up access and temperature controlled storage units. Both properties have been well maintained and offer 24-hour video surveillance and perimeter fencing.

President and CEO for Moove In Self Storage, John H. Gilliland, comments, "We are excited to own and operate our first property in Connecticut! We look forward to bringing the Moove In Self Storage brand to the market and hope this is just the first of many stores to serve the population throughout the state."
