

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOOVE IN SELF STORAGE HIRES KURT KNEPSHIELD AS DISTRICT MANAGER

York, PA - January 3, 2023- Moove In Self Storage has announced the hiring of Kurt Knepschild as District Manager. Kurt's district will encompass Moove In's Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, and northern New Jersey locations. Kurt will be reporting directly to the Vice President of Operations Shaun Lewy.

Kurt's responsibilities will include supporting properties within his territory, team member development, performance enhancement, reviewing pricing and competition surveys; and preparing employee performance reviews, property budgets, operational reviews, and expense reports to manage financial controls and property performance.

Before joining Moove In, Kurt worked as a District Manager for Life Storage. He has a proven track record of leading and developing a solid team environment while focusing on driving factors in self-storage. Prior to his seven years in the self-storage industry, Kurt's experience was in retail, where he established a sales and customer service mindset which will largely contribute to the enhancement of the Moove In customer experience.

Kurt currently resides in Massachusetts with his wife Kristina, and their two children Makayla (19) and Tyler (13). He is an avid Boston and New England sports fan and enjoys rooting for all four major sports teams in the area. He also enjoys coaching basketball, working on his Mustang, and trying to golf when he can.

"Kurt joining our team strengthens our operations department to an even greater capacity than it already is," Shaun said. "His knowledge and experience in the self-storage industry, along with his proximity to our newly carved out territory, will provide us with an even greater focus on supporting his properties, team member development, and performance enhancements. We are excited for Kurt to join the team and I look forward to what lies ahead."
